PROMINENT PIONEER GONE TO FINAL REST

The mortal remains of Thomas G. Durham were placed away in Union cemetery last Monday afternoon alongside those of his mother who had preceded him to the grave many years before. At the mortuary chapel of the James Crowe company many old time friends gathered that bright forenoon to pay their last respects to the departed dead. Rev. C. H. Stevens paid a beautiful tribute to the unselfish life of the deceased. He spoke feelingly of Mr. Durham's tenderness for his mother. The reverend gentleman recited as an instance of his devotion to his parent that when as a young man he was residing in Redwood City and daily expected his mother from the east on a prairie schooner and not having arrived at the time she was due here he became alarmed. He mounted his horse and rode all the way to Reno to meet her and escort her to Redwood City.

Mr. Durham passed away last Friday at the home of Dave White, an old friend residing at Mountain View, following a stroke of apoplexy.

The deceased was an uncle of Mrs. Norris C. Cummings and George Durham of this city and brother of Mrs. Mary Beebe of Tunitas.

Thomas Durham was born in New Jersey on March 5, 1833. When he was only one year old, he was taken by his parents to Ohio, where he lived until he was 21. He came to California via the Nicaragua route in 1854, and after remaining in San Francisco one year, came to Redwood City and joined his brother, W. W. Durham, who had settled here the year before. The brothers lived just back of Wellesley Park off of what is now known as Whipple avenue. The brothers teamed for several years from the old Page mill in the mountains near Woodside to this city They afterwards moved to the coast-side of the county, taking up farming claims on Tunitas Creek.

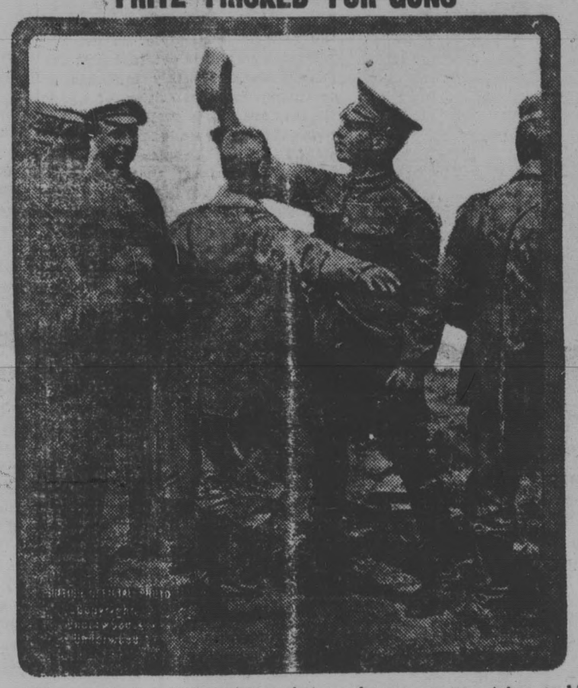
FRITZ 'FRISKED' FOR GUNS



Fritz usually is a docile prisoner, but no chances are ever taken on his not trying to take along with him to the prison "cage" a pistol, wire-cutters, a compass or a saw to aid escaping.

Allied prisoners are searched by the Germans for food, but this is entirely unnecessary in the case of German prisoners.

Your subscription to the Fourth Liberty Loan will help keep the Allied fighters in plenty.

MRS. MARY MORIARTY AGED 80, PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Mary Moriarty, a native of County Kilkenny, Ireland, aged 80 years, passed away at her home at 1315 Page street, San Francisco last Wednesday following an illness of seven months. George A. Brice, who has been in charge here for the past year. Rev. Mr. Brice goes to Mayfield. His successor is Rev. Oscar Smith of San Jose. He will fill the pulpit tomorrow.

OPEN SEASON FOR DUCKS OCTOBER 16

Low Lands and Marshes Are Well Supplied With Ducks This Season.

The season for shooting wild ducks opens October 16 and from reports received by hunters it is likely that there will be great sport this year. The local marshes are well supplied with birds, the flights from the north lately have been very large. Widgeon and mallard are quite plentiful. A number of local sportmen are organizing a large party to go to the rice fields of the north when the season opens. Butte and Colusa counties, the big rice communities are fairly swarming with the birds. Hunters will be there from all portions of the state to enjoy the sport. They will be welcomed by the rice growers who have suffered considerable loss from the birds which have become a pest in those localities. The farmers will make efforts to have the hunters to remain and shoot and scare off the troublesome feathered tribe. Among those who will make the trip will be: Guy P. Hull, Professor Montieth, Supervisor Joseph Francis of Halfmoon Bay; George Genochio, Claude Fox, W. T. Casey of Menlo Park; William Carnduff of Ravenswood, Frank Marcus, and many others too numerous to mention.

THE FOURTH LOAN IS THE FIGHTING LOAN

As the campaign for the Fourth Liberty Loan approaches the American army in France moves on toward Berlin. Under our own leaders the great American army has won a notable victory.

The Fourth Loan must be a great success. The Fourth Liberty Loan is a fighting loan.

When our soldiers on the battle front are braving death, each one offering to make the supreme sacrifice for his country and the great cause, we who remain safely at home surely should give them every support, should make every sacrifice to strengthen them. If we can not fight ourselves we can make our dollars fight.

It is a great cause for which America is engaged in this war; it is a great struggle in which the very hope of the world is bound up that is being waged in Europe and on the high seas. It is an honor to have a part in it and all Americans, all of their lives, will be proud of the part they had in it or ashamed of their failure to do their part.

The Fourth Loan is a fighting loan. Every subscriber to the Loan strikes a blow for Liberty, for Victory.

THE LIBERTY LOAN WILL ARM OUR SOLDIERS

The subscribers to the Liberty Loans have purchased for the War Department over $4,000,000,000 of ordnance—$1,000,000,000 was spent for artillery; $300,000,000 for automatic rifles; $100,000,000 for small arms; nearly $2,000,000,000 for artillery ammunition and $340,000,000 for small arms ammunition; $100,000,000 was spent for armored motor cars.

It is estimated that $7,000,000,000 will be spent by the Ordnance Department this surrent year.

Every American wishes to have a part in winning the war and supporting our soldiers who are fighting our battles in France. Every subscriber to the Fourth Liberty Loan will have a part in the great achievements that the American army is accomplishing, and in the achievements which the greater American army will accomplish next spring.

ENSIGN JOHN McCREA VISITS PARENTS HERE

Ensign John McCrea, only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. McCrea, arrived here from Annapolis on Tuesday evening on a fifteen days furlough. He will start east today and on October 7 will be assigned for duty on a transport that will ply between New York and some French port. The young ensign has made a splendid record for himself since enlisting in the navy last January. He was awarded his commission last June after passing a creditable examination at the naval training station at Pelham Bay near New York. Out of a class of some 6000 sailors he, with forty-nine others was given a commission. The fifty young men were sent immediately to Annapolis for a fifteen weeks special training. They with 750 others graduated from the institution on September 18. This is certainly a brilliant record for any young man to achieve and Ensign McCrea may be justly proud of it.

Ensign McCrea was a deputy in the county surveyor's office when he enlisted. He is a graduate of the local high school. He also spent some time at Stanford.

ON THE ROAD TO BERLIN

"No sah! I'se not going to France," replied the dusky soldier. "I'se goin' to Berlin, but I may stop in France for a short time on de way."—The New York Telegram.

MRS. CORINNE IRVING SUES FOR DIVORCE

Accusing her husband of having lost his love for her, Mrs. Corinne G. Irving, prominent in peninsula society, Tuesday, through her attorney, Percy Towne, filed suit for divorce against George H. Irving, in the superior court of San Francisco. The Irvings have been living at Redwood City.

According to Mrs. Irving, they were married September 27, 1907, and separated April 18, 1918.

For ten years of her married life, she asserts, she suffered great mental anguish, due to her husband's remarks that he no longer loved her and resented her presence near him.

Irving is president of the George H. Irving company, dealers in real estate and brokers. He is a member of the Redwood City chamber of commerce and has always been active in civic affairs in this city. The Irving Real Estate company are agents for Redwood Highlands a subdivision in Redwood City.

According to his wife, Irving has a large income. There is considerable community property, according to Mrs. Irving, who asks $125 a month temporary alimony and $100 attorney fees.

SAN CARLOS ITEMS

Mrs. G. H. Doyle, nee Cartwright, from San Francisco is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Fred W. Lippman at Laurel Nook.

Mrs. Rebecah Reed McGlynn from El Centro, California, is visiting at the Hull-Shields home.

Mrs. R. J. Shields, Miss Sophie Gleichner and their friend, Mrs. McGlynn, went to Brookdale last Sunday morning for a week's outing.

Mrs. John H. Doane of San Mateo chairman of the Red Cross was here last Tuesday to arrange for a local committee to take care of the next drive in this vicinity.

During the heavy thunder and lightning storm last Saturday morning we were reminded of the time when some of our grandmothers would resort to the old feather beds and remain there until the storm had spent its force, as feathers were supposed to be non-conductors and a protection from lightning.

Through the operation of an ambiguous primary law which was placed on our statute books in the interest of narrow partisanship we are presented with the ridiculous spectacle, that of the popular choice of the people being robbed of his right to serve as governor of California. However, a defeat brought about by any such hodge-podge or hocus-pocus will only serve to deprive James Rolph, Jr., of his inalienable right to the governorship, to more quickly land him in the United States Senate; and in a way it repeats the old story of Lincoln and Douglas; Douglas' defeat of Lincoln for a seat in the U. S. Senate only served, a little later, to place Lincoln in a more exalted position, that of president and the great emancipator of his country.

LOT ATTACHED TO PAY FOR SON'S TUITION

William H. Warren II, headmaster of the Warren school at Menlo Park, who is suing Mrs. Mayzellia A. McCarthy and her divorced husband, Dr. Charles F. McCarthy, for $406.11 for the tuition of Francis McCarthy, the 13-year-old son of the couple, has secured a writ of attachment on a lot owned by the McCarthys adjoining the Elks' club on B street, San Mateo.

GREETED FRIENDS IN REDWOOD CITY

Judge Thomas J. Lennon greeted friends in Redwood City last Saturday. Owing to the state's peculiar primary law he is compelled to again make the race for associate justice of the supreme court. He is confident of winning at the general election in November. There are two vacancies on the supreme bench and at the primaries there were three candidates. Judge Wilbur secured the highest vote, getting 50,000 more than Judge Lennon and the latter received 50,000 more votes than Judge Lorigan. From these figures it is quite certain that Wilbur and Lennon will be elected in the November election.

BANK OF ITALY SECURES SERVICES OF LOUIS FERRARI

From an assistant in District Attorney Fickert's office, San Francisco, to trust attorney for the Trust department of the Bank of Italy is the step Louis Ferrari will take on October 1. His resignation has been tendered and Mr. Ferrari retires from private practice as well as his duties as public prosecutor. In the past enghteen months, or since the organization of the Trust Department of the Bank of Italy, is has kept pace with the remarkable growth of the financial institution. Trust Department service is obtainable at the twenty Bank of Italy branches in seventeen California cities, of which thirteen are county seats. It was because of the gain made in this department as well as the splendid prospect for future business that prompted the bank executives to look for a man to assist Vice- President James A. Bacigalupi, manager of the Trust Department. He was finally induced to relinquish his public office and private practice and become associated with the Bank of Italy. He will handle the legal end of the Trust Department, while Vice-President Bacigalupi will continue to manage the department and among other things devote his time to a more extensive and complete trust organization at each of the branches.

Mr. Ferrari brings to the Bank of Italy many years of legal experience and his acquaintence extends to all sections of California. He graduated from the Lowell High School in San Francisco and in 1901 graduated from Stanford University. He immediately attracted attention in the legal profession and in 1913 was named as assistant in the District Attorney's office. He represented the people in some of the foremost cases. He prosecuted the members of the Italian bunco ring, and directed the campaign to clear the Hall of Justice from the bail bond sharks. He was also active in the cases that grew out of the preparedness bomb outrage.

T. CLARK RICE FAVORS BUSINESS METHODS

T. Clark Rice candidate for county recorder, is winning many friends because of the clean-cut campaign he is making. He believes that business methods are the best indication of a candidate's fitness for public office, and in seeking the suffrage of the voters of San Mateo County he is asking that his candiacy be considered along this line, assuring the voters that his election will mean business efficiency for the recorder's office

"I have conducted my own affairs along business lines," said Rice yesterday, "and can see no reason why a county office should not be conducted along the same lines." Adv.

RABBI NIETO GAVE AN INTERESTING ADDRESS

Rabbi Nieto gave an address of unusual interest in the forum series at the Baptist church Sunday evening, taking for his subject "Americanization the Need of the Hour." One of the first qualities of Americanism is, he said, government by consent of the governed. That was the chief demand of the colonies and caused the rebellion. For Europe knew nothing of such a principle; it staggered them "The little red schoolhouse" is the first plank in democracy, general education. It prepared the people to hold deliberative meetings, town meetings, etc. If Russia had had this "Little red schoolhouse"idea in vogue Germany could not have gotten into her land. Americanism means the training of the mind to be a real factor. To govern means more than to vote; it is to discriminate, to analyze, to know why you do so and so. Patriotism is more than shouting for the flag or when the band plays. It is to stand for the right; to die for the good of your country. We are in this fight for a great idea, for the enfrachisement of man. We are battling as our forefathers did for the glory of a great cause; for the good of the world. When the war began we were concerned chiefly with material things; we were money-mad. Germany thought we cared only for getting dollars and would not fight for honor. The call of the hour caused us to throw off this cloak; to disregard the dollar in the desire to help the oppressed, to right the wrong. We are thus holding the doctrine of our revolutionary fathers. The highest type of man will come from this conflict, has already come in the person of President Wilson and other great leaders among us. Americanism is overflowing the world the right of every one to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Congregational Church

At the Congregational church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. C. H. Stevens will preach on "Proof of the Pudding." Evening service at 8 o'clock, the topic will be: "Why Did the King Forgive the Unjust Servant? How Many Times Should You Forgive?"

Sunday school at 9:45. Endeavor Societies at 7. The public is cordially invited.

Forum, Baptist Church

A special meeting will begin at the Baptist church Sunday evening under the lead of Miss Amy Stockton of San Jose and Chaplain Dean of Camp Fremont. These are expert workers and eloquent speakers. Among the subjects discussed next week will be: "Is This War of Armagedon?" After Jesus Returns to Earth What Will Happen?" "The Kaiser and Martin Luther's Bible." There will be a meeting every evening of the week excepting Saturday. Everybody is invited to all these addresses. The hour 8 o'clock.

WOMEN VITAL AID IN SPEEDING UP WAR LOAN DRIVES

Western Mothers, Sisters, Wives Back Up Fighting Men by Buying Liberty Bonds

By Mrs. Hazel Pedlar Faulkner

"Where your treasure is,—there will your heart be also."

The truth of that statement, made so many years ago, has been brought home anew as never before.

What mother does not know the force of it? And at the price of what infinite pain and suffering, as well as of pleasure and joy, has she realized the rest, "there will your heart be also."

The hearts of American mothers—countless thousands of them—are overseas. In the trenches along the Aisne, on the battlefields of Flanders and Picardy, the treasure of hundreds of thousands of American mothers is daily being offered up. And to those spots, made sacred by the treasure, go the hearts of a loyal land.

MISER'S HEART DEAD TO LIFE JOYS

There is a legend of a certain man, whose god was gold, and whose passion during his lifetime was the accumulation of the precious metal. After years of hoarding the man died, but even before his final passing his family and friends were astounded to find all trace of his heart gone.

After his death his treasure box was opened. There, surrounded by his hoarded dollars, lay the heart, secure in the presence of its treasure.

To American mothers no more despicable man could be pictured. For his treasure, stored in the dark places of his possessions, might have saved many days of strife and sorrow. And his heart was dead to all that the best in manhood stands for.

Of far gentler sort was the heart of that little mother, type of thousands of American mothers whose all has been laid on the altar. There will be a legend about those mothers in some remotely future date. And the light will shine around such as she.

"I didn't expect to sew any more," said a little, bent old lady, who asked if she might have work to do. "I thought my sewing days were over, for Joe took care of me."

And there her eyes glistened and she straightened back as far as possible the stooped, narrow shoulders. "But he is a soldier now. Of course, he sends me the money to live on. But I can't buy Liberty Bonds with that," and she smiled with a satisfaction which bespoke decision regarding her next move.

"MY HEART'S OVER THERE NOW"

"You see, I am getting the sewing to do, so I can pay for my bonds. For my boy is fighting over there, and I can't have him need things I can help to buy for him and all those other mothers' boys.

"You see, my heart's over there now."

And her treasure, meagre to the vanishing point almost, is following it loyally and bravely.

Western mothers, can you do less? Your hearts are overseas, and your treasures must follow. The Government, through its Fourth Liberty Loan, offers you a special opportunity to send your treasure following in most effective fashion.

Every Liberty Bond we buy means so much of the war paid for and put out of the way. Every dollar we offer to the Government, to put into its war fund, bespeaks an earlier return for our treasure and a brighter day for our land.

Who lends generously and willingly in this fight, gives manifold, for she gives when the need is sorest, and the promised return is great.

N. J. BRITTAN RANCH TO BE DIVIDED FOR THE HEIRS

On Wednesday Judge Buck made an order whereby the N. J. Brittan ranch of over 400 acres near town is to be partitioned. It is to be divided into three equal parts for the three children of the late capitalist.

County Surveyor James V. Neuman and R. F. Chilcott were appointed by the court to make the division. They have already begun the work and in accordance with the instructions of the court must complete it within two weeks from the signing of the order. Their report will be then presented to the court for his approval. There has been considerable wrangle over the estate by the heirs. It is thought the partitioning of the property will be satisfactory to all parties concerned and that the estate will shortly be distributed.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

A company of engineers is soon to occupy the quarters recently vacated by the 319 engineers. It is believed that 2000 men will be at the quarters early next week.

E. W. Hopkins will depart next week for his winter home in San Francisco. He is the vanguard of a number of wealthy people who will move to the city during the coming week.

The Red Cross House, Base Hospital, Camp Fremont, will be formally dedicated this afternoon at 3 o'clock It is to be made a big event. The speakers will be Major General Eli A. Helmick, A. B. Dohrmann, Colonel George Filmer and Lieutenant Walter H. Winterberg.

A prominent shoe firm of San Francisco has leased a portion of the Russell building on Oak Grove avenue and will open a first-class shoe store about the tenth of October. The firm will make a specialty of officers boots and shoes.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Clinton La Montagne have taken the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pringle in Menlo Park, where they will remain until November.

Mrs. A. Stern, who has been a guest at the St .Francis Hotel since her return from Menlo Park, left during the week for New York, where she will remain indefinitely.

The government is about to commandeer the wool supply in this locality, that is the wool used for knitting. It will be conserved by the government for that purpose. Frazer and Company of Palo Alto have notified their patrons to this effect. The change will most likely take place on October first.

Japanese have leased the forty-acre ranch belonging to William Carn duff at Ravenswood for a period of three years. Mr. Carnduff has agreed to sink a well that will furnish a sufficient supply of water. The Japanese are to raise tomatoes. The land is peculiarly adapted for this crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Talbot Walker have as their guests at their home at Menlo Park Mrs. Charles Ingram and Mr. Eliot Rogers of Santa Barbara. They arrived from the south this morning and will remain until Monday. Mrs. Walker's mother and sister, Mrs. James W. Keeney and Miss Helen Keeney, are also there, and will remain until October 1.

J. H. Sullivan, the San Francisco capitalist who recently purchased the 90-acre tract near Atherton avenue from the Barney Estate, is plowing the land preparatory to establishing a large seed garden. Garden seeds of all varieties will be propagated there. All the fences have been removed to make way for a substantial board structure. Seed planting will begin when the ground is properly prepared. This enterprise promises to be one of vast proportions. The grounds are to become one of the show places of the peninsula.

Samuel Shortridge, Jr., son of Samuel M. Shortridge, the noted attorney and orator, has enlisted in the U. S. navy and leaves on Monday next for one of the training stations in the south. Young Shortridge gives up his books to fight the Hun. Inspired with true patriotism and with a desire to help defeat the foes of democracy the young man enter the service of Uncle Sam with a determination to do his full part in this great conflict. His patriotism is commendable. He goes forth with enthusiasm bearing the blessings of his devoted mother and his distinguished father.

Edward O'Neill has arrived home from Alaska where he went last April with the Alaska Packing company to work in its canning plant in the north Mr. O'Neill enjoyed the work and the scenery in the Land of the Midnight Sun. The company had an unusual season, packing over 45,000 cases of salmon.

Edward Hanlon, the lightweight champion boxer of the world who has been at Camp Fremont for the past five months as an athletic and boxing instructor, left during the week fc one of the southern cantonments. He became very popular with the men at the camp and was a general favorite with all.

Captain Maloney, the athletic instructor at Camp Fremont, arrived on Thursday from a military camp in Georgia where he had been for the past three months taking a special course in athletic training. He has resumed his work here with renewed vigor.

No changes will be made in the present site of the 62d Infantry to provide a larger divisional drill ground, as eronously reported. Colonel Lindsay today denied any knowledge of the supposed change, saying that it was not likely that the improvements of the 62d Infantry, which it had taken three months to install and has cost $3000, would be moved. The ground occupied at present by the regiment would not furnish sufficient space for the required drill field. According to Colonel Asa Singleton, chief of staff, the old artillery drill grounds will propably be used for divisional reviews, The space required for these maneuvers is a field approximately two miles square. The preparation for the improvement of a new parade ground indicates that there is no doubt regarding the permanency of the camp in the minds of the staff officers.

A number of the draft registrants here who were on other occasions rejected by the exemption board for some slight physical defects were called before the exemption board last Saturday. A number were given the opportunity of correcting these defects by having an operation performed, or go the to logging camps in northern Washington where the government is manufacturing spruce lumber for aeroplanes. Thomas Carleton accepted the former proposition and will undergo a slight operation at the Lane Hospital next week and in due time will be inducted into the regular army. Patrick O'Donnell decided to go to the camp. About fifteen others from the county will accompany him north.

W. D. O'Brien, the well-known mining engineer residing here, has been chosen to be sent to Bolivia to act in a confidential capacity for the State Department. Mr. O'Brien has been summoned to Washington and will leave for that place early next week and from there will start on his long journey for his new post. When he gets properly settled at his quarters he will in all probability send for Mrs. O'Brien and the children. Mr. O'Brien is to remain in Bolivia during the period of the war. After that he may become the regular agent of the United States there. O'Brien has had extensive experience with South American affairs. He recently took a trip to Bolivia for New York financial interests, and was eight months in the country investigating several large tin and tungsten mines.

Chester Mills, 11 years old, a resident of Menlo Park, got as far as San Francisco on his way to the front line trenches in France.

Through no fault of his the journey has been interrupted and Chester must postpone it for a bit. A heartless police officer found him walking determinedly, though wearily, down a San Francisco street and took him to the detention home. His parents were notified and the child returned to them.

Chester had a knapsack, a roll of blankets, a canteen and some food on his back when found by the police.

VERY IMPORTANT NOTICE

The attention of our subscribers is directed to the recent ruling of the United States War Industrial Board, quoted as follows:

"No publisher may continue subscriptions after three months of expiration, unless subscriptions are renewed and paid for.

This ruling is an arbitrary one and the government will require its strict enforcement, in order to conserve the paper stock at present on hand and to prevent a threatened famine in news print and other paper.

Those of our subscribers whose subscriptions are past due are asked to call at the Times-Gazette office and settle, in order to obviate the necessity of making bills. This brief extension of time to subscribers is in line with the policy of the War Industries Board.

There is absolutely no choice in the matter for the War Order is imperative and if you wish to continue to get the Times-Gazette, you MUST comply with the requirements.

CORNELIUS CULLEN BOURN TO LAST RESTING PLACE MONDAY

On Monday morning a long cortege of sorrowing relatives and friends followed the remains of the late Cornelius Cullen to their last resting place in Holy Cross cemetery Menlo Park. The body was placed alongside the remain of his father and mother who had preceded their son to the grave many years before. The impressive services at Mount Carmel church were largely attended. Rev. Father J. J. Sullivan delivered a touching and beautiful eulogy over the remains of the deceased. He told of the many good qualities of the deceased and of the numerous good deeds he had done in life and the good example he had shown in his every dealing with his fellow man.

The following life long friends of Mr .Cullen acted as pall bearers:

A. D. Walsh, J. F. Johnston, Asa Hull, Thomas Flynn, Louis F. Sericano and W. O. Horabin.

LIEUTENANT ELY WRITES BEFORE THE ACCIDENT

Lieutenant Dinsmore Ely, an aviator killed in France in April, wrote the following beautiful lines to his father a few days before his death:

"If anything happens to me, let's have no mourning in spirit or in dress. Like a Liberty Bond it is an investment, not a loss, when a man dies for his country. It is an honor to his family, and is that the time for weeping? I would rather leave my family rich in pleasant memories of my life than numbed in sorrow at my death."
